Integrated Testing Platform

ON24 Continuing Education Solutions cater to each program's unique needs, making the creation and administration of educational programs a very straightforward process. You may include interactive, self-paced tests before, during or after the event. Additionally, short tests or polls at regular intervals might be included to enforce attendance requirements. Tracking student progress is easy with automated assessment and certificate generation

Certification

ON24 Continuing Education Solutions are particularly well suited for required certification programs. Certificate generation at the conclusion of a virtual education event can be customized as needed. Now you can track and enforce live attendance, on-demand viewing of course material and completion of post-event surveys and tests.

24/7 Easy Accessibility

The ON24 virtual events platform delivers fully streamed events. Attendees are not required to dial into conferences and will not be inconvenienced by pop-ups and software downloads. Simply click on a link, turn up the volume and attend an ON24 virtual event. Programs may be broken into chapters and modules to allow attendees to view content in the order that best meets their unique needs. On-demand online courses make it truly easy to learn at your own pace.

Program Results and Reporting

ON24 Continuing Education Solutions include a powerful reporting engine which provides details of event performance and course participation and test results. Program reports are real time and entirely web-based.

Support and Service

ON24's "follow-the-sun" Professional Services team can assist with every aspect of event production, from media capture to event setup and live monitoring. ON24 has experienced creative and production teams to provide exceptional service and to customize and promote your events.

Proven Scalability and Reliability

ON24 currently delivers over 25,000 events per year. ON24 has a proven track record of flawless execution of "live" events and is the only company in the industry operating two data centers for complete redundancy and high reliability. ON24's strategic partnerships with content delivery networks ensure reliable, global reach.
